CHINA FACES A NEW CIVIL WAR

Imperialists Backing Bourgeoisie in P'ing

UNITE AGAINST CANTON

BULLETIN

Everybody's talking about the war of China's civil war. All talk in the East is of the civil war between Kiangsi and Kiangnan. The American press is featuring stories of a new war in China as a result of Kiangnan's seizure of Kiangsi. In this case, China is without a doubt a country in state of civil war.

Both sides are playing important parts in this new civil war. The war is precipitated by the imperialists. The United States is already playing a role in this. The United States is playing a role in this war as well. The United States is playing a role in this war as well.

The war is the culmination of American imperialism's policy to divide China. As the result of the Vietnam War, the British have been trying to increase their influence in China. At the same time, the American imperialists are also trying to strengthen their position in China. As a result, the American imperialists are also trying to strengthen their position in China. DELEGATION OF YOUNG WORKERS PAYS VISIT TO SOVIET RUSSIA

Young Austrian Workers' Enthusiasm on Display

YOUTH WORKERS from Austria expressed their enthusiasm for the visit to the Soviet Union during their stay in Moscow. They were impressed by the industrial achievements and the spirit of cooperation between workers and the government in the Soviet Union. Their visit was an opportunity to learn from the experiences of the Soviet workers and to share their own knowledge and skills with their counterparts in the Soviet Union.

Young Miners Tella of Pinchlow-Lewish Pact

The English-American "worker" announced that the visit of the Austrian workers was a "great event," as it was the first time that Austrian miners had visited the Soviet Union. The visit was well received by the Soviet authorities, who expressed their gratitude for the visit and the contribution it made to the friendly relations between the two countries.

Sargent Plant Won't Employ 20,000-

The management of the Sargent Plant, a major steel producer in Austria, announced that they would not employ more than 20,000 workers. This decision was in response to a government directive to reduce the workforce in the steel industry. The workers were not satisfied with the decision and planned to protest against it.

Programme Miners, Another Organiser

The miners of the Sargent Plant, among other organized groups, showed their support for the Austrian miners who were visiting the Soviet Union. They were encouraged by the experience of their Soviet counterparts and were determined to strengthen their own organization.

Third Communist Youth Convention

A new generation of communists were preparing to take over the reins of power in Austria. The Communist Party was strengthening its hold on the youth, and the Third Communist Youth Convention was an important event in this process. The leaders of the youth organizations were gathered to discuss the future of the party and the role of the youth in the struggle for socialism.

The immediate problems

The main topic of discussion at the convention was the immediate problems facing the youth. The leaders of the youth organizations were concerned about the need to mobilize the youth for the struggle for socialism, and they emphasized the importance of education and propaganda in this struggle.

The three pamphlets

There are three pamphlets available for every Y. W. L. member to obtain before the convention, as these pamphlets not only contain the latest decisions and resolutions of the Young Communist International, but also the latest decisions of the Young Communist League of Great Britain.

For the Convention:

Three pamphlets that every Y. W. L. member will want to read before the National Convention of the League.

1. "RESOLUTIONS." Adopted at the Fourth Congress of the Young Communist International, with which we are including the free latest decisions of the Y. C. I. ON THE AMERICAN LEAGUE.

2. "THE RESULTS OF TWO CONGRESSES." Summing up the results of the Fifth Congress of the Communist International and the Young Communist League of Great Britain.

3. "THE DRAFT PROGRAMME OF THE YOUNG COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL." A pamphlet that every member of the Young Communist League will want to read before the convention, as it contains the latest decisions and resolutions of the Young Communist International.
