Young Workers! Young Striking Workers!

Stand by the Anthracite Strike!

(Manifest of the National Executive Committee of the YOUNG WORKERS LEAGUE)

For eight weeks we on hundred and fifty thousand coal miners have been on strike. This strike is fighting for the abolition of the coal company system in this country. It is fighting for the livelihood of the miners. It is fighting for the freedom of the miners. And it is fighting for the abolition of the coal company system in this country.

The recent experiences of the coal miners in Great Britain where the government has tried to crucify the miners by shutting down the mines and the laboring class of the country is what we miners are fighting for. We miners are fighting for the right to work. We miners are fighting for the right to live. We miners are fighting for the right to be human beings.

A GENERAL STRIKE OF ALL MINERS:
A WALKOUT OF ALL MAINTENANCE MEN!
NO SEPARATE AGREEMENTS.

Negro Labor Congress Sets Up National Organization

HEARS YOUTH DEMANDS

The issue of the Negro youth movement was discussed at the recent Negro Labor Congress which was held last month in Chicago. The congress dealt with the problems of the Negro youth movement and emphasized the need for a national organization to serve as a focal point for the activities of the young Negro workers and students. The congress was attended by delegates from various organizations, including the Young Communist League, the Young Labor League, and the National Youth Congress. The congress adopted a resolution which called for the establishment of a national organization to represent the interests of Negro youth. The resolution stated that the organization would serve as a coordination center for the various youth groups and would work to promote the political, social, and economic interests of the young Negro workers and students. The resolution also called for the organization to be based on a democratic and non-sectarian principle and to be open to all young Negro workers and students who agreed with its objectives. The congress concluded that the establishment of a national organization would be a positive step in the struggle for the rights of young Negro workers and students.
Russian Komsomols: Builders of the Future

By HERBERT ZAW

The Young Communist League in Russia stands out as one of the most remarkable social movements of our times. It is a youth organization that has made a remarkable advance in the cultural and political life of the Soviet Union. Its influence is increasing year by year.

The Young Communist League of the Soviet Union

One of the first great accomplishments of the Young Communist League was the organization of the first All-Union Congress of Young Communists in 1920. This congress was a major event in the history of the movement, as it cemented the unity of the Young Communists and laid the foundations for their work in the years to come.

Despite the challenges it faced, the Young Communist League continued to grow and expand. Its membership increased rapidly, and its influence spread throughout Russia. By the late 1920s, the Young Communist League had become a powerful force in Russian society.
