WORLD CAPITALISM ON DECLINE AS WORKERS SWING TO LEFT

The lives throughout the world are being more and more clearly drawn between the revolutionary forces at work against capitalism and the ruling class. The forces opposed to the "security" pact were a unit of the United Front against the great capitalist powers. This meant growing, gaining strength and has now a powerful force in world events, led by the French and Spanish communists, the Austrian Social Democracy, the Russian revolutionaries, and the like. The intense contradictions existing between the various capitalist groups is making it itself felt and will serve as the nucleus for the formation of the most powerful united front against the rich, for the defense of the revolution against the attacks of the enemies of the working class. This is the period in which the working class is moving fast towards the unity in the face of the new world crisis.

FRENCH CRISIS GROWS ACUTE

Finance Minister Vacates Post

Paris, France—Vignes is moving rapidly toward a showdown with the government over the budget and the French crisis continues to grow worse. The government has asked the president to accept the resignation of the finance minister, who has refused. The government's financial policies have been a major cause of unrest in France for months. The crisis is not isolated and is spreading elsewhere in the world.

MELLUSO SPEECH IS MORGAN POLICY

NEW YORK—In an address to a group of railroad officials, Morgan (Henry) said: "The railroad industry should be a great asset to the nation. The improvement of the railroads is essential to the nation's progress." The speech was widely noted as a reflection of the Morgan interests' policy of investing in the railroads.

TO ALL WORKERS IN EAST OHIO AND VICINITY

The conditions of the young workers are rapidly getting worse. This is especially true of the steel making industry. While the competition pressures continue to increase, the conditions under which the young workers work, become even more serious. The workers are forced to work long hours in bad conditions, and they have little or no money to support themselves. The living conditions are even worse. The wages are low, the housing is poor, and the working conditions are dangerous.

Auction of Lottelby Farm

The auction of the Lottelby Farm will be held on Saturday, December 28, 1925, at 10 a.m. The farm is located at the north edge of the town, and is one of the finest farms in the area. The farm includes 100 acres of land, with a house, barn, and outbuildings. The farm is well-kept, and is in excellent condition. The auction will be held by the Lottelby family, who have owned the farm for several years.

Mellusso's 34th Day on Hunger Strike

"The strike was ordered by the American Federation of Labor, and is the result of the growing discontent among the workers. The workers are demanding better working conditions and higher wages, and they are determined to fight for their rights." The strike is not only affecting the workers, but also the entire community. Businesses are closed, and people are on the verge of starvation.

Mississuli Lui Ties Up Labor's Hands

"Mississippi Lin" was a major union organizer in the southern states. The South, which has always been a stronghold of the Ku Klux Klan, has now become a center of labor activity. The union has been able to gain the support of many workers, and they are determined to fight for their rights.
