THOUSANDS OF YOUNG PASSING
TEXTILE WORKERS STILL HUNGRY
FOR SPECIAL DEMANDS OF YOUTH

BY E. L. M.

Thousands of young textile workers have signed a mass meeting at the Palace Hotel at which special protests concerning the youth were taken up.

The protests taken up were (1) Equal pay for equal work. (2) No right wage for young workers under 18.
(3) No repayment of union dues for any work done.
(4) Eight hours a day and six days a week.

The recommendations made at the meeting were (1)
equal pay for equal work, (2) no right wage for young workers under 18, (3) no repayment of union dues for any work done,
(4) eight hours a day and six days a week.

THE PARIS CONGRESS WAS THE FIRST STEP

The Soviet power is the second step of world revolution.

The development of industry and the future of the world is inextricably tied up with the development of youth. The International Youth Congress was the first step of the parisian congress.

The congress was held in September and October, 1919,
and was attended by the following countries: Belgium,
France, Italy, Poland, Russia, Spain, and others.

Child Indenture in Land of "Free"

By REBECCA KATZMANN

DIFFERENTIATED years age, when the country was a realm of larceny the public school had not yet penetrated to every corner. Children who had nothing to eat, who had to work to keep the family going, were employed as indentured servitors in the agricultural fields. Their living conditions were often brutal, and their lives were perpetually precarious.

The Concentration Group (A Problem in Elementary Forms)

By SALEM KAY

The Concentration Group is a problem in elementary forms. It is the first step in the understanding of the subject matter of Elementary Mathematics. It is a problem in which the students are required to divide a given number of objects
among a group of individuals or groups.

The advantage of using the Concentration Group is that it helps the students to develop their thinking skills and problem-solving abilities. It also provides an opportunity for the students to practice their basic arithmetic skills.

The Concentration Group can be used in a variety of circumstances, such as in the classroom, during recess, or at home. It can be adapted to suit the needs of different age groups, and can be used by both teachers and parents.
