Young Workers of America stand Solidly Behind the General Strike of 500,000 British Workers!

General Strike in Great Britain

The strike of 500,000 British workers in the very great majority of the industrial workers in the nation. This is the first clear-cut strike of its kind, and one of the most significant events in the history of the working class in the United States.

The strike began on July 26th, and the workers are fighting for an 8-hour day, better wages, and improved working conditions. The strike is supported by the Communist Party of Great Britain and the British Labour Party.

The strike is a powerful demonstration of the workers' determination to fight for their rights and improve their living conditions. The workers are determined to win the strike and establish a new order of society that is based on workers' control and democracy.

The strike is also a powerful demonstration of the workers' solidarity and unity. The workers are standing together in the face of the capitalist class, and they are determined to win the strike.

The strike is a historic event that will be remembered for generations to come. The workers' victory will be a significant step forward in the struggle for a better world.

Young Communists Lead in Organizing Youth

The solidarity of labor's forces is the keynote of the world's greatest strike taking place in England at the present time. For May Day (the international holiday of the working class), 300,000 British workers demonstrated in the streets of London and other cities, showing the world the determination of the working class to fight for its rights.

The strike is led by the British Labour Party, which has long been the leading voice of the working class in Britain. The party has a clear program of demands, which includes an 8-hour day, better wages, and improved working conditions.

The strike is also supported by the Communist Party of Great Britain, which is the most powerful and well-organized political organization in the country.
