Editorials

The League Plenum

The question of the K. K. R. C. is of great importance. It is upon this question that the United States is most likely to make a serious mistake. The K. K. R. C. is not a large organization, but it is a powerful one. Its members are deeply interested in the question and have a strong desire to see their views carried out.

The League Plenum was held in Washington last week. It was attended by representatives from all parts of the country. The discussions were intense and the atmosphere was charged with emotion. The members of the League were divided into two camps: those who favored the United States' entry into the war and those who opposed it.

The League Plenum was a preview of the future Congress. The League is an organization of radical socialists who believe in the overthrow of capitalism and the establishment of a socialist society. They believe that the United States should join the war to help bring about a socialist world.

Children of the Mill Town Strikers

At a meeting held yesterday at the Milburn Mill in Paterson, New Jersey, the children of the strikers were given a chance to express their feelings. The children spoke out against the exploitation of children in the factories. They said that they wanted to be able to go to school and learn how to read and write, and that they should not have to work in the factories.

The children were accompanied by their parents, who told of the hardships they had to endure. They said that they could not make a living in the mills and that they had to support their families by working long hours.

The meeting was a great success, and the children were able to make their voices heard. The organizers of the meeting are planning to hold similar meetings in other mill towns.

Resolutions on the Young Workers (Communist League)

The Young Workers (Communist League) has issued a statement condemning the resolution adopted by the American Federation of Labor. The resolution, which was passed at the convention of the AF of L, was a call for the United States to enter the war to support the Allies.

The Young Workers say that the resolution is contrary to the interests of the working class and that it is a call for the United States to become involved in imperialist conflicts. They say that the resolution is a call for the United States to become a slave to the war lords.

The Young Workers say that the resolution is a call for the United States to become a slave to the war lords. They say that the resolution is contrary to the interests of the working class and that it is a call for the United States to become involved in imperialist conflicts.
The third annual subscription drive for the Young Worker is now on and the Young Workers League is in full swing. The Young Workers League is the voice of the working class youth in this country. The League is dedicated to the struggle for social justice and the advancement of workers' rights. They work for an end to child labor, for an end to the exploitation of workers, and for the establishment of a democratic society. The League is not only for young workers, but for all those who are fighting for a better world. They are the voice of the future. The League is open to all who believe in these principles. They welcome new members with open arms. Join the League today and become a part of the struggle for a better world.