WORKERS PARTY RAISES YOUTH ISSUES IN 1926 ELECTIONS

Election day is coming round once again. In the atmosphere with an increasing density of shop windows and market stalls, of light, of buoyancy, comes the Bohemian spirit of revolution. The entire native movement of the noblest, highest, and most liberty work in the world. The workers and youth are demanding a vote, a vote for independence, a vote for national self-determination."

C.M.T.C. LECTURES ARE MOST PROVOCATIVE, PRO-BOSS, ANTI-LABOR PROPAGANDA

Baker asks U.S. to TOOK ALL DESEATS OF ALLIANCE Leadership

Well, he ought to know. He has so much authority already. His voice is loud enough to fill a whole room. They won't take his advice.

Fighting Labor Movement was given to us by Lieb, Walker. The essence of these lectures were to teach the workers the theory of the Labor Movement. Lieb, Walker, in the course of his lectures confined himself to a mere statement of the facts, giving little detail of their meaning or the end of the struggle.

FARRINGTON'S LAST SELL OUT. TUMULTY ON PROGRESSIVE slate.

Young Miners Support Progressives

By GERRY ALLARD, Young Coal Miner.

Frank H. Farrington, skillfully directing the campaign on behalf of District No. 12, United Miners of America, has finally been overcome in his efforts to call a strike and sell out the miners. The District Executive Board at its meeting declared that Farrington had been outmaneuvered and for that reason he must immediately return to his work.

Farrington is at the present time in Europe as a national delegate to the British Trade Union Congress, representing the American Federation of Labor.

Farrington has had his troubles of late with the organizing committee of the miners, as they are the ranking officials in the union and who have been in the forefront of the fight against mining. They have refused to sell out and Farrington has been forced to accept their decision.

The organizing committee have been very strict in their demands, and Farrington has been forced to accept their decisions. They have refused to sell out and Farrington has been forced to accept their decision.

LOS ANGELES, Calif.-Local Union 82 of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union is still striking in a big drive to organize the Trojan dress shops. The present condition of the drive at the Trojan dress shops and some of the other big storage shops here is that the union members are in control, and the men are a lot of them.

The highest wage for a girl dressmaker in the open shop is $1.50 a week.

The union has a strike fund of 50 cents a week, and for this reason the members do not have to work more than two days a week.

The union is now organizing a new plant in the Trojan dress shops, and it is expected that the new plant will be completed by the end of the year.

Demonstration for Passic Relief!

Without a word, without our work, the lavorers would become the backbone of our society.

The lavorers who are able to work, and who are able to produce, are the backbone of our society.

The lavorers who are able to work, and who are able to produce, are the backbone of our society.

This lack of solidarity is very harmful, it only encourages the workers to remain idle and to demand higher wages and better conditions.
