CHILDREN WORK AT HARDEST AND MOST DISGRACEFUL TASKS IN THE TOBACCO FIELDS

CHILDREN under 16 years of age play an important part in the tobacco industry. In the United States, two of the main growths of tobacco are Kentucky and Maryland. The tobacco workers in both of these states are children. The children work in the fields and in the warehouses. They pick tobacco, load it on trains, and pack it in boxes. They are hired by the children's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor.

In the tobacco districts where children are hired, the children work in the fields and in the warehouses. They pick tobacco, load it on trains, and pack it in boxes. They are hired by the children's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor.

The work is hard and dangerous. The children are exposed to the sun, dust, and chemicals. They are often physically and mentally abused. The children's work is often considered to be child labor.

LEYED THAT TURKEY-DUMPSEY FIGHT IN PHILLY WAS FAKE FROM THE START

Young Workers Who Lost on Fight Should Think Twice

Some facts are being brought to light which makes us wonder if the Gene Turkey-Jack Dempsey heavyweight championship fight was "fixed" from the start. For instance, at the start of the fight, Charles M. Schwab, mill owner and union leader, was interviewed by the press at the Drake Hotel in Chicago. Schwab said: "I don't think this fight will last long. I see no reason why this fight should not be won by Gene Turkey." The fight was won by Gene Turkey.

Others who have been quoted in the press have also made statements that this fight was fixed. However, the press has continued to publish reports that this fight is not fixed.

WAS THIS BOXING CHAMP FIXED?

Boxers, players always in the ring, are always at the mercy of the public. The public has the power to make or break a boxer. If the public does not like a boxer, he will not succeed. If the public does like a boxer, he will be successful.

NEW BEFOREWED HOW JEWESBY-TURFNEY FIGHT WOULD END

Two Negro Labs Killed By Mob

The company of Charles J. B. Moynahan, manager of the Tobacco Research Council, in New York City, has been ordered to pay $25,000 to the families of two Negro laborers who were killed in the tobacco fields. The laborers, Charles Brooks and James Smith, were members of the American Tobacco Workers Union. They were working in the fields when they were shot by white laborers.

This is the first time in the history of the United States that a company has been ordered to pay such large sums of money to the families of workers who were killed in the fields.

SHALLOWLY REMAINS?

The question is being asked by workers and their families. They want to know if their families will continue to be paid in the future. The company has not yet replied to this question.

The subscription campaign for The Young Worker began on October 12, 1925. The subscription campaign will last for generally three hundred days. It is held on Labor Day, the 15th, 1937.

We want three thousand raw readers, regular readers, who will receive our paper twice every month. We want four thousand readers for The Young Worker, the only working class youth paper in the United States.

We want to get an average of thirty subscriptions every day during the campaign. We want three thousand young workers to come inside to the calling of the Young Workers League, to bring them into the labor movement, to mobilize them against imperialism in war, to organize them into a working class sports movement, to fight the fight of the working youth.

We want three thousand new subscriptions to help us bring such a Young Worker which will come yearly—seven issues every year instead of two.

OUT AMONG THE YOUNG WORKERS!
GET THOSE THOUSANDS!

THE PRIZES

The district of the Young Workers League which leads the campaign will be presented with a hard-bound number of books.

The city organization of the Young Workers League which leads the campaign will be presented with a library of books worth twenty dollars.

The young worker who gets the greatest number of subscriptions every fifty dollars will receive a new Washington portable typewriter.

Every council who gets a subscription will be given a book to be used in a membership drive showing that he is doing his bit for The Young Worker.

OUT AMONG THE YOUNG WORKERS!

THE STATEMENT OF NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

THE YOUNG WORKER is the only organ of the working youth of America. That it has fought valiantly no one can deny. It must reach a circulation of TEN THOUSAND by New Year so that we may be able to publish it weekly.

We need THREE THOUSAND NEW SUBSCRIBERS to do this!

DOES IT DESERVE THESE ADDITIONAL READERS? The answer lies in the hundreds of letters we have received commending the courage with which our little paper has fought.

YOU YOUNG WORKERS in whose interests the paper has fought; you who have used it in factory campaigns, anti-imperialist work, and in organization drives, WILL YOU GET THESE THREE THOUSAND NEW READERS?

The National Executive Committee of the Young Workers (Communist) League calls upon you to help break through the fog with a stronger organ—A WEEKLY!

SEND US YOUR ANSWER IN A BATCH OF SUBSCRIPTIONS!

Fraternally,
Young Workers (Communist) League of America,
SAM DAROFF, National Secretary.
LITTLE SCHEMES TO MAKE BETTER SLAVES

In a Navaho, N. J., support is given to the idea that the slaves are the future of the meeting. There is no reason why the young worker should not increase the number of his friends and improve their social status.

YOUNG MINERS DOING SAME WORK AS ADULTS FOR LOWER WAGES

Organization into United Mine Workers, Stop This

By GEORGE PAPAN

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15, 1917.-The national coal mining industry is the greatest impetus to the mine work. Especially for this year, the power and conditions they work and how they are exploited. A study when you have a hard job, is a necessity. The young miners are working under the 1917 coal graders, as a rule.
