Indictments May Follow.

MAGNOLIA, Mass., Sept. 5.— Attorney General Thomas W. Gregory was a guest at the summer home of Colonel E.M. House here this evening when he received word that raids on the headquarters of the Industrial Workers of the World in many cities had been carried out as arranged by the federal Department of Justice.

“It is no secret,” said Mr. Gregory, “that the Industrial Workers of the World have been under suspicion for some time. The Department of Justice conducted a quiet investigation until I was convinced that we were warranted in taking such action as this.

“I do not need to say the the raids will be followed quickly by indictments if we find anything to warrant them, and the men will be prosecuted to the extent of the law if they deserve it.”

Raid Haywood’s Residence.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.— Eight places were raided by government officials here today. The places raided were:

Headquarters of Industrial Workers of the World, where Haywood has his office.

Residence of Ralph R. Chaplin, editor Solidarity, the official weekly paper of the IWW.

Residence of Vincent St. John, local secretary of IWW.

Headquarters of American Socialist, which were also headquarters of Socialist Party.

Raid Headquarters in Butte.

BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 5.— Federal authorities, aided by the police, raided alleged IWW headquarters here this afternoon and confiscated all papers. Seven other places about the city were raided.

In the headquarters of the electrical workers armament consisting of 8 revolvers and pistols, several high-powered rifles, and considerable ammunition were found. In the doorway W.A. Carte was placed under arrest on the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

The raids were made under the leadership and direction of E.W. Bryn, Special Agent of the Department of Justice, United States Marshal J.L. Ashbridge, and Chief of Police J.J. Murphy, assisted by a squad of policemen and detectives.

Hundreds of men stood outside the Finlander Hall during the proceedings and uttered jeering remarks. The raid was a complete surprise. Peter Petrja, secretary of the Metal Mine Workers’ Union, readily yielded to the order of the officials and turned over the contents of the files and material desired.

The enrollment book of the Metal Mine Workers’ Union was found to consist of nothing but figures. When accosted by Bryn with the demand to turn over the membership book, Peterja is said to have declared, “That is it. The IWW is prepared for you fellows. Our fellows are known only by number. You are welcome to the book, but it is no good to you.”
