An Open Letter—Continued.

To the People of the Commonwealth

Dear Comrade,

The attitude of some members to the accepted principles of the Social Democratic political structure, the attitude of some to the demands of the partial and partial demands, and, I gather, the United Front, is at a low ebb. If there is any meant to be converted to any of these demands or partial demands, and lead the party into the lowest level, a vote for them is tantamount to voting for the destruction of the party. It is a shame, therefore, to see this. The refusal of the party to vote for any of these demands is not in any way an indication of a desire to prevent the party from doing anything, but it is simply an indication of the fact that the party is not prepared to do anything that will tend to place the party in a position where it will be unable to carry out its program.

I, therefore, appeal to all members of the party to vote against any of these demands, and to show their support for the principles of the party by their votes. The party must continue to fight for its own principles, and it must be noted that the party is not in a position to do anything that will tend to place it in a position where it will be unable to carry out its program.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]

An Open Letter—Continued.

To the People of the Commonwealth

The attitude of some members to the accepted principles of the Social Democratic political structure, the attitude of some to the demands of the partial and partial demands, and, I gather, the United Front, is at a low ebb. If there is any meant to be converted to any of these demands or partial demands, and lead the party into the lowest level, a vote for them is tantamount to voting for the destruction of the party. It is a shame, therefore, to see this. The refusal of the party to vote for any of these demands is not in any way an indication of a desire to prevent the party from doing anything, but it is simply an indication of the fact that the party is not prepared to do anything that will tend to place the party in a position where it will be unable to carry out its program.

I, therefore, appeal to all members of the party to vote against any of these demands, and to show their support for the principles of the party by their votes. The party must continue to fight for its own principles, and it must be noted that the party is not in a position to do anything that will tend to place it in a position where it will be unable to carry out its program.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]